Call for Summer Training at IDIBELL 2017

The Bellvitge Biomedical Research Institute (IDIBELL) offers 10 final year university and/or master students an opportunity to be part of the research groups of the Institute and complete their training during the summer. IDIBELL's summer training program will have a theoretical and practical scope and a duration of 3 uninterrupted months.

Requirements

Applicants willing to participate in the program must be final year students of a biomedical bachelor's or a biomedical master's degree program. It is mandatory to have an open university file in order to facilitate an agreement between the university and IDIBELL.

Procedure

Applications will be sent via e-mail to osr@idibell.cat and should include the following items:

1. Application form
2. Curriculum vitae
3. University transcript
4. Motivation letter (200 words max.)
5. Acceptance letter from the principal investigator of the hosting group.

Duration

The training will last for 3 months without interruptions of full dedication that will be distributed between July 1st and October 31st in agreement with the principal investigator of the hosting group.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: MAY 22nd 2017

Selection criteria

MAXIMUM NUMBER OF APPLICANTS: 10

In the case of more than 10 applications, candidates will be classified into two categories (master students or degree students) and prioritized according to their university transcripts.

The list of accepted applications will be published on IDIBELL's website. Accepted candidates will be sent a confirmation e-mail.

Accepted students

All accepted students must provide the following documents at least one week before the start of the summer training program:

- DNI/NIE
- Social Security Number
- Bank account number
- Photo
- Agreement with the University

Any student who does not provide the documentation on time will not be accepted.

Final report

Within two weeks of the end of the training program, students must submit an activity report (3 pages max.) that will be assessed by IDIBELL's Scientific Direction, which will issue a certificate of his/her training. This report should be sent to osr@idibell.cat.

Other considerations

The training offered in this call does not imply a working relationship of the student with IDIBELL. However, the student will receive a financial aid of 150 € / month.
